

Name Mathijs Boersma
Title Regenerating the backside of the NDSM-wharf
Location Amsterdam Noord
University TU Delft
Studio MSc1 Ways of Doing
Year 2015-2016
Tutor Atelier Bow-Wow, Hans Teerds, Tom Avermaete
Tags infrastructure, water

Text

On the backside of the NDSM-wharf behind the Scheepsbouwlloods a private marina is found, a common typology reoccurring in Amsterdam-North. A floating pontoon element is introduced in the marina, making the water publicly accessible. The proposal intends to provide an architectural framework to could bring together the visitors, users and inhabitants of Amsterdam-North, while giving an example of the potentiality of the marina typology.